

2nd Annual UVA Jazz4Justice Saturday, April 13th 8:00pm at UVA's Old Cabell Hall

to benefit:

The UVA Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of John D'earth, is partnering with Jazz4Justice, Central Virginia Legal Aid Society, and the Legal Aid Justice Center to bring the Second Annual Jazz4Justice Concert to UVA. Jazz4Justice, founded in 2001, collaborates with university music programs and the local legal community to raise funds for Legal Aid and music scholarships. Since 2001, more than 47 annual Jazz4Justice concerts have been held on 9 Virginia college campuses and have raised more than $400,000. (www.Jazz4Justice.com)

The April 13th Jazz4Justice Concert at UVA will benefit the Central Virginia Legal Aid Society, the Legal Aid Justice Center, and the UVA Jazz Program. The concert will take place in the beautiful Old Cabell Hall Auditorium at 8:00pm. To purchase tickets, in addition to those included with your sponsorship, please visit <http://music.virginia.edu/jazz-ensemble-jazz-4-justice> or call the Box Office at (434) 924-3376. Tickets are $10 General Admission. Old Cabell Hall is located on the UVA campus, building number 31 on this map.

The attached Sponsorship Form details the sponsorship levels and promotional benefits of your sponsorship. Please complete the form and send it with check payable to Jazz4Justice by April 9th, 2019, to be featured in this year's program.

Jazz4Justice Partners

With hundreds in the audience each year, Jazz4Justice draws members of Charlottesville's legal and business community to enjoy an evening filled with Jazz music and friends.
